

PURPOSE AND NEED OVERVIEW

The Thornton Water Project will deliver water owned by the city of Thornton to its residents, which is critical to ensure water supply reliability and drought resiliency, to provide drinking water that is protective of public health, safety and welfare, and to meet municipal water demands in the city through 2065.